2. Have you ever been behind the scenes in a big hotel? Do you know what is going on out in the mammoth kitchen where scores of cooks and waiters are preparing food for hungry folks?
3. We'll step into the dining room then and after we've fed and feasted we'll journey out into the kitchen and visit the Chef.
4. Here we are in the "heart of the hotel." Looking down the long line of ranges where "Broiled Lobsters" and "Rost Chicken" are "done to a turn."
5. If cleanliness is next to godliness surely this is a delightful place to work. Dirt is unknown while pots and kettles shine like milady's mirror.
6. You're fond of delicious coffee of course - - - here's where its prepared.
7. System! There's enough of it here to delight a General. Note the order and precision with which everything is carried forward:
8. Dainty Salads with Sweet Creams and Delivious Fruits reared by the hand of an expert.
9. Let's peep into the ice box where the steward keeps his choicest cuts, hanging in the corner is a Reindeer from far away Alaska.
10. And here is a choice bit from the North Pacific - Whale Meat.
11. And now we'll visit the pastry cook for he's the chap who rears fancy designs and flowers from candy.
12. There's good humor a plenty among the Chef's jolly crew- Here's the kitchen orchestra. Most of them, lobsters, who have seen better days.

13. You all remember Grandmother's ice Cream. How we had to crack the ice and cover it with salt and then crank the old freezer like a hand organ grinder! How times have changed - for the ice cream chef makes his cream in 5 minutes.
14. Are you fond of rolls, the crispy, brown kind?
15. Vegetables are cooked in big steamers.
16. Fresh fish for Friday.
17. Soup? -- Gallons of it! Cooked in big copper kettles.
18. Trimming a Turk.
19. Dirty dishes remain but for a moment.
20. The store room in a big hotel is as well stocked as a modern grocery.
21. "The Chefs they lead a jolly life, jolly life,
So free from every care and strife, care and strife."
